

We would like to cordially invite you to a national workshop and discussion on the
MEDS GARDEN project framework

NEW OPPORTUNITIES FOR VEGETABLE AND HERB GROWING THROUGH HERITAGE

To be held on Monday, 12 February 2018 at 10:00 a.m.

Škocjanski zatok Nature Reserve, Sermin 50, 6000 Koper, Slovenia

PROGRAMME

10.00	Welcome speech by the moderator of the discussion - Igor Škerbot, KGZS Zavod Celje
10.05 - 10.30	Presentation on the MEDS GARDEN Project and new opportunities to ensure added value at farms using the example of the Purissima Garden, Denis Topolnik Live green, Patricija Pirnat KZ Agraria
10.35 - 10.55	Presentation of an example of best practice in integrating heritage at a farm - Zeliščni raj slovenske Istre, Posedi Urban
10.55 - 11.30	Workshop: How to identify farms to facilitate their involvement in tourism? Denis Topolnik Live green, Tanja Verhovnik Verus d.o.o.
11.30 - 12.00	Conclusion of the discussion, and sauerkraut- and sour-turnip tasting, Igor Škerbot, KGZS Zavod CE

Admission to the discussion is free of charge. However, registration is required, as space is limited. Please send your registration application to info@live-green.si.

We look forward to welcoming you!

MEDITERRANEAN GARDENS

PARTNERJI
PROJEKTA

